

NANDITA RAJAKUMAR

(916)-667-1677 | nandita.rajakumar18@gmail.com

PROFILE

With background and experience in Architecture, striving to positively impact social, economic and environmental aspects of society. A well rounded, focused and strategic professional who aims at utilizing expertise from architectural training and real estate education to play a pivotal role in the Built environment,

ACADEMICS

University of Washington, Seattle, Washington
College of Built Environments - Dept. of Real Estate
Masters of Science in Real Estate Development (2017- 2019)

Washington State University, Pullman, Washington
School of Design and Construction
Masters in Architecture (2015 - 2016)
Bachelor of Science, Architectural Studies (2011 - 2015)
Minor in Business Administration

WORK EXPERIENCES

Architectural Associate, Katterra Architecture LLC (May 2016 - Present)
Architectural Design staff involved in construction documentation of Residential Projects. Pursuing Architectural Licensure in the state of Washington

Teaching Assistant at WSU - SDC 100 (2015 - 2016)
Introducing freshman students to the world of Design and constructions, elaborating on the aspects of Architecture, Interior Design, Landscape Architecture and Construction Management.

Lab Technician, FabLab at WSU (2013 - 2016)
Aiding students and faculty with model making process and operate machinery such as the laser printer and 3D model makers

Collaborator, "Night Blooming" Art Installation (2015)
Design and installation collaborator in the installation of the Night Blooming, an installation at Bellevue art museum under the team of Prof. Taiji Miyasaka and David Drake.

HONORS

Linda Nordstrom Endowed Fellowship in Real Estate Studies (2018)
Financial Assistance to graduate student in the UW Real Estate Program in the College of Built Environments.

$15k Grant by Environmental Protection Agency (2016)
Collaboration in trash wall project as Aesthetic skin designer. Recognition at the National Sustainable design exposition (2015 - 2016)

AIA Honorable Mention (2015)
Collaboration in art installation - "Night Blooming" by Taiji Miyasaka

Ka Yan Tang Award (2014 - 2015)
Awarded to the most involved student in the international body of WSU

Presidents Honors Roll (2011 - 2014)
Awarded to students with GPA 3.5 or higher

International Student Merit Awards (2011 - 2014)
Awarded to students with academic proficiency

EXTRA CURRICULAR

International Student Council ASWSU at WSU
Vice President (2014 - 2015)
Programming Chair (2013 - 2014)

Indian Student Association at WSU
Vice President (2014 - 2015)
Cultural Coordinator (2012 - 2014)

Alpha Rho Chi Architecture Fraternity at WSU
Finance Chair (2013 - 2014)

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Proficient in Autodesk - AutoCad, Revit; Adobe Suite Design - Photoshop, Adobe, Illustrator, InDesign, Flash, AfterEffects; Rhinoceros, Grasshopper, SketchUp Pro, Microsoft Office: Excel, word, powerpoint; Argus Enterprise